ABOUT ME

I am Przemyslaw Uchanski, a qualified specialist in marketing and management with a degree, hailing from Poland. I have been based in the UAE since 2013.

In addition to my academic background, I am an engaged entertainer and skilled music creator.

I possess extensive expertise in event design and management, having collaborated with prominent event companies like Red Events and Option1.

We represent a singular entity dedicated to delivering top-tier service management, corporate communications, and immersive brand experiences in the UAE. Our primary goals encompass offering a comprehensive array of event management and media solutions. These encompass creative development, design, production, marketing, and the execution of corporate events, public gatherings, product launches, and marketing communications consultancy.

These services are executed through various avenues, including live events, interactive programs, displays, entertainment, installations, and other engaging methodologies.

We aim to deliver quality results through cost-effective, credible, and versatile custom-made solutions for all our Clients in UAE.

Working with several local suppliers we are able to deliver the quality and prices You are looking for.
